DO THE NEW RULES
COVER THIS?

Yes, and so did the 1949 Rules of Golf. The perplexed golfer’s ball is impaled on the barb of a wire guarding a green from large animals. The wire in this case is an artificial obstruction. The player may drop without penalty under Rule 7(4b). If it had been a boundary fence there would be no relief.