The Agronomics of Course Preparation for Major Championships
by Alexander M. Radko, and William H. Bengeyfield

Golf Course Economy-A Time to Review
by Bob Adams

Cupping Area-Where Does It Go?
by William G. Buchanan

Turf Twisters

---

Cups that enter championships enjoy a Pride permeates everyone. The club, its employees all feel “Our course is shown by our results. We challenge our championship to have a nationa make any extr date it, we just proceed.”

This has been a course superintendents. Great courses are what makes it a great feature of the country. Major championship set up just as the changes, normally careful study of ev every foot of terrain

JULY 1975