for that four or five-day period, for one week in a given year. The playing and, course even starts down the "championship conditions" road.

We all love what we see on television. It is important for golfers to realize that for time, the course conditions have to be set to...