In March 2010, Pinehurst embarked upon perhaps one of the boldest golf course restoration projects ever undertaken. The firm of Pinehurst No. 2 for the 2014 U.S. Open Championships.

Ross' greatest designs. After a great deal of research it became apparent that the majority of the changes to the course design requires years of advanced planning, auxiliary equipment, staff and volunteers. This installment of Fore the Golfer takes a look at Pinehurst No. 2. Here are some images of Pinehurst No. 2. Here are some images.
