

USGA Acquires "Golf House"

By JOSEPH C. DEY, JR.

USGA EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

The USGA dream of "Golf House" has nearly come true.

A five-story building at 40 East 38th Street in New York City has been purchased to serve as the future home of the United States Golf Association and its Golf Museum and Library. Work will soon go forward on alterations so that the USGA may occupy part of the building late in September. Until then, the USGA will maintain its present quarters at 73 East 57th Street, New York City.

The building, which will be known as

"Golf House"

"Golf House," is a 25-foot-wide limestone-front, American basement dwelling, with elevator. It was purchased by Golf House, Inc., a New York corporation formed by the USGA for the purpose of acquiring and holding this property. The purchase price was $72,775, including a mortgage. Total estimated final cost of the project of establishing this national center for golf is approximately $100,000.

"Golf House" will be a monument to the devotion of thousands of golfers to the game's best interests, for it is being established with funds contributed by individual golfers, clubs and associations throughout the United States, as well as Canada and South America.

It will house the hundreds of invaluable golf memorabilia in the USGA Golf Museum, such as famous clubs, balls, photographs, engravings, documents and medals, in addition to the USGA Library, which will become available for reference by golf-lovers. It will also be the USGA's quarters.

To establish this national center for golf, 2,655 contributors had given $46,233.85 at this writing.

When several thousand golfers agree on something, it must be a right sort of thing. In fact, it must be a near-miracle. Golfers are pretty independence-minded: just look at the variety of putting stances.

A high point in agreement among golfers was reached recently when every one of the 418 members of the Manufacturers' Golf and Country Club, near Philadelphia, enrolled as a Founders. Richard F. Alley, club president, is a proponent of unanimity.

Since it is now necessary to reach the goal of $100,000, all golfers are cordially invited to participate in this major cooperative venture. Donations of any size are most welcome; they should be made payable and addressed as follows:

USGA GOLF HOUSE FUND
73 EAST 57TH ST.
NEW YORK 22, N. Y.

The names of all contributors will be inscribed as Founders on a permanent roll in "Golf House."

The first 1,457 Founders were listed in previous issues of the USGA JOURNAL. Below are the next 1,076. Succeeding Founders will be recorded in subsequent issues.
