

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

THE WINNING SMILE

Julius Boros looks like a man who has swallowed a canary or won the Open Championship. At this moment he had won the Open and was addressing the gallery at the Northwood Club, Dallas, Texas, flanked at the presentation table by George F. Baldwin, chairman of the Northwood Club, and Totton P. Heffelfinger, President of the USGA.

JULY 1952