

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

A TIE IN THE FIRST WOMEN'S OPEN

Wide World Photo

The first USGA Women's Open Championship set a high standard at the Country Club of Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Jacqueline Pung (left) and Miss Betsy Rawls were tied at 302 after 72 holes, and Miss Rawls won the play-off, 71 to 77.

AUGUST 1953