THE PORTRAIT AND THE MAN

Francis Ouimet inspects, apparently with some misgivings, the portrait of himself which was presented to "Golf House" during the USGA Annual Meeting. On the other hand, Isaac B. Grainger (left), the new President, and Charles W. Littlefield (right), a former President, seem to have gotten considerable enjoyment out of the presentation ceremony. The painting is the work of Thomas E. Stephens and was the gift of William H. Danforth and Edward E. Lowery.
