

USGA Nominees For 1955

ISAAC B. GRAINGER, of New York, has been nominated for re-election as President of the USGA, and twelve of the fourteen other members of the present administration also have been nominated for re-election.

William P. Castleman, Jr., of Dallas, Texas, and Frederick L. Dold, of Wichita, Kan., have asked to be relieved after having served the Association since 1951 and 1950, respectively, as members of the Executive Committee.

The nominees for the resulting vacancies are Emerson Carey, Jr., of Denver, Colo., and John M. Winters, Jr., of Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. Carey, who is a member of the Denver Country Club, has been a Director of the Trans-Mississippi Golf Association for twenty years and was President of that Association in 1939. He was graduated from Cornell University, where he was captain of the football team, won the Kansas Amateur Championship twice and is a partner in an insurance agency.

Mr. Winters, who is a member of the Southern Hills Country Club, is a past President of the Oklahoma State Golf Association. He was graduated from the University of Michigan, where he was cap-
