

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

HANDICAPPED? NO.

Detroit Free Press

His crutches cast to one side, Bill Daeschner, of Birmingham, Mich., blasts his way out of a bunker at the Red Run Golf Club, Royal Oak, Mich., during the amputee golf championship last summer. The so-called handicaps of these players serve them merely as sporting challenges.

FEBRUARY 1955