

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

A WINNING SMILE

Rochester Times-Union photo

The broad smile of victory is ample evidence of Cary Middlecoff's delight in winning his second Open Championship. The former Memphis dentist withstood the last ditch efforts of Ben Hogan, Julius Boros and Ted Kroll to overtake him as he finished with a winning score of 281. He then became the ninth man privileged to pose for the second time with the Open Championship trophy.

JULY 1956