

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

A SAILOR GOES DOWN TO THE SEA

San Francisco Chronicle photo

Two fishermen and a little girl, right, quite unexpectedly became members of the gallery at the USGA Public Links Championship when Bill Scarbrough, a Chief Petty Officer in the Navy from Jacksonville, Fla., arrow, was forced to recover from the rough bordering Lake Merced. The action took place on the 16th hole of the final match at Harding Park Golf Course, San Francisco, Cal. Scarbrough, in losing the hole, lost the championship to James H. (Junie) Buxbaum, of Memphis, Tenn., 3 and 2.

SEPTEMBER 1956