

USGA JOURNAL

AND TURF MANAGEMENT

RECORD OF A HOBBY IN "GOLF HOUSE"

Ralph A. Kennedy, of New York, N. Y., the man who has played on more courses than any other golfer, has donated his entire collection of 3,165 authenticated score cards to the USGA Museum in "Golf House." This picture was taken in 1940 after playing his 2,000th course. See story page 6.

APRIL, 1957