OPEN CHAMPIONS 65 YEARS APART

Sixty National Open Championships ago Horace Rawlins was the winner. That was the first USGA Open, and Rawlins, then 19, remains the youngest Champion of all time. He received a gold medal and $150 for his 91-82—173 score at Newport (R.I.) Golf Club. Ten professionals and one amateur entered. This month at Cherry Hills in Denver, Bill Casper, Jr., will defend honors he won a year ago at Winged Foot, Mamaroneck, N. Y. Casper's score was 71-68-69-74—282. There were 2,385 entries and Casper's prize money was $12,000—eighty times Horace Rawlin's prize.
